COSP – October 10, 2009, 9:00am-12:00pm Nursing All Around: Diverse Yet United

The 2009 Council of School Participants (COSP) will be held on October 10, 2009 9:00am-12:00pm at the NJSNA Headquarters located at 1479 Pennington Rd., Trenton, NJ. This year's theme is Nursing All Around: Diverse Yet United. An impressive panel of nursing experts has been assembled and will share their insights regarding cultural diversity in the nursing field and how to competently care for a culturally diverse patient population. The panel is comprised of the following nursing leaders:

- Lydia Albuquerque, American Indian Nurses Association
- Leo Jurado, Philippine Nurses Association
- Ana Nogueira, Hispanic Nurses Association
- Deborah Walker-McCall, Northern New Jersey Black Nurses Association

A complimentary lunch will be provided directly following the presentation.

The registration fee for the event is $5.00, if registering before September 25, or $10.00 if registering at the door. The registration form can be found on the NJNS, Inc. website at: <http://www.njnsinc.org/conventions/cosp-2/>

If you have any questions, please contact me at secretary@njnsinc.org.

We hope that you will be able to join us for this important event.
